- Walk on the incredible Great Wall
- Unfold the mystery of the Forbidden City
- Stroll in the exquisite Summer Palace
- Gaze in awe at the marvelous Terracotta Warriors & Horses
- Immerse yourself in the bustling metropolis Shanghai

Day 1 • Thursday • New Zealand ✈ Beijing

Fly to Beijing, the capital city of China, via a connecting city. Upon arrival, you will be warmly greeted at the airport by your tour guide and transferred to your hotel. (Note: Some flights may depart the day before.)

Day 2 • Friday • Beijing • (B, L, S)

Beijing has served as the capital of five dynasties over a period of 800 years. Today, visit Tiananmen Square, the largest public square in the world, and the Forbidden City, the Chinese imperial palace from the Ming to Qing dynasty. Continue on to the Temple of Heaven, one of the best examples of Ming Dynasty architecture and also an ornate sanctuary where Chinese emperors offered sacrifices to heaven and prayed for good harvest. Your welcome banquet includes the local delicacy, Peking Roast Duck.

Day 3 • Saturday • Beijing • (B, L, D)

Today's highlight is an excursion to the majestic Great Wall at Juyong Pass, the most famous image of China, and a chance to climb a portion of this 3,700-mile marvel. Visit one of the largest Jade Exhibitions in Asia en-route. After lunch, see skilled artisans at work at a Cloisonné Factory, and visit the Changling Exhibition Hall of the Ming Tombs, where thirteen of the sixteen Ming dynasty emperors are buried. Tonight, you can choose to attend an optional large scale dramatic musical, "The Golden Mask Dynasty" (optional at your own expense).

Day 4 • Sunday • Beijing • (B, L)

Tour the exquisite Summer Palace, the largest preserved ancient imperial garden in China, and a former summer resort for Emperors. Then, visit a Chinese Herbal Institute to learn about traditional Chinese medicine, which has existed for thousands of years. This afternoon, join a "Hutong Life Tour" (optional at your own expense), a special journey which explores Beijing's ancient alleyways or "hutongs" by pedicab followed by a stroll in Wangfujing, one of the Chinese capital's most famous shopping streets. After dinner, cap off the day by attending a superb and thrilling Chinese Kung-Fu Show (optional at your own expense).

Day 5 • Monday • Beijing ✈ Xi'an • (B, L, S)

Fly to Xi'an, the first Chinese city to open its doors to the world during the Tang dynasty, and the capital for eleven dynasties over a period of more than 2,000 years. Today's highlight is a visit to the Terracotta Warriors & Horses Museum, one of the most significant archaeological excavations of the 20th Century, to see the life-sized defending army of the first emperor of China, Qin Shi Huang. Later, visit a Ceramics Art Factory, followed by a special Dumpling Banquet, to be enjoyed with a performance of music and dance from the Tang Dynasty (618-907 A.D.).

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

What is the baggage allowance?

The standard baggage allowance is 20kg for check-in baggage and 5kg for hand carry. For all China domestic flights, all electronics including batteries must be placed in your hand carry. Check-in baggage with electronics will fail X-ray screening.

When is the best time to visit China in terms of climate?

Spring and autumn is generally the best time to visit China when the weather is mild - not too cold and not too hot. Normally, the most comfortable season of the year is early autumn (September to early October). During that period, temperatures are reasonable throughout China with a limited amount of rain. Spring (March to May) can also be delightful with the average temperatures roughly the same as in autumn. Regardless of the time of the year, a visitor will always be rewarded with charming scenery throughout China.

What is the local currency in China?

Chinese money is called Renminbi (RMB) which literally means "The People's Currency". The popular unit of RMB is "yuan". One New Zealand Dollar is currently worth around RMB$4.95. (AUG 2016)
